- This application simply places me on a list to participate in the program and does not establish my eligibility for a unit.

- All persons used to obtain mortgage financing for a unit must be listed on this application.
- My eligibility as an applicant must continue from the date the application is filed to the time a lease for the unit is signed or title to the housing unit passes to me.
- The housing unit rented or purchased will continue to be used as my principal residence.
- There are limits set by law to my rights to sub-lease or sell and profit from the housing offered under this program.
- Knowingly false statements made in this application or in subsequent submissions of financial data or other information will be subject to appropriate action by the Community Housing Board.
